Petit Jean Weekend

By: Kim Cox

On Friday, April 21st a group of 13 BCOS members headed up to Petit Jean State Park in Arkansas to enjoy some hiking and relaxing. Some stayed in the park lodge & some camped/RV'd. The weather was perfect as the group gathered for the first hike of the trip Friday afternoon at the Bear Cave Trailhead. Many pics were taken of the stunning rock formations on this excursion! We then continued the hike along the Cedar Falls Overlook trail to ooohhhh and ahhhhh over the view of Cedar Falls from the top. After an early supper at the lodge we took a short evening hike to the Rock House Cave ... this trail takes you through some spectacular "turtle rock" formations leading you to a LARGE rock shelter which still contains evidence of Native American inhabitants (pictographs on the cave ceiling and wall are from that primitive time). We finished Friday evening by enjoying some dessert and adult beverages in our lawn chairs at the CCC Overlook which has BREATHTAKING sunset views.

On Saturday morning we gathered behind the lodge to hike the Cedar Falls trail followed by the Canyon trail. It's a good thing we got an early start as these trails get VERY popular as the day progresses on the weekend. There were beautiful views of the creek as we hiked and then we were WOW'd as we rounded the final curve to see Cedar Falls in its full flowing glory! Several of our group got VERY ADVENTUROUS and rock scrambled to stand behind the waterfall itself (way to go ladies!!). We lunched at the "Blue Hole" water feature at the end of the Canyon trail and took some fun pics on the stepping stone "bridge" across the creek there. After lunch and a bit of rest on Saturday afternoon we tackled the Cedar Creek Trail. Despite the washed out bridge on that trail from a recent storm we enjoyed our out-and-back hike... some strenuous climbs on this one but the gorgeous river/woods views were worth the effort! We attempted another sunset watching gathering for Saturday evening but the cloudy skies, cold/windy weather and tired bodies from all day hiking made that a short lived attempt. Some met around Tammy Jernigan's campfire Saturday night for dessert, drinks and late night fun while the rest crashed early!

Sunday morning the last remaining BCOS'ers hiked the Seven Hollows trail to see the impressive rock formation called the Natural Bridge and to another small waterfall/grotto. The entire trip was FANTASTIC with excellent fellowship and fun... the only hiccup in the whole weekend was the $717 mystery charge from the park that appeared on my (Kim's) credit card... did I pay for everyone's lodge room?? The park rectified the situation so no permanent harm done but I still blame Perry H. (haha)!! Be sure to join us the next time we travel to this GORGEOUS place!!

Lake Bistineau State Park Paddle Adventure - April 15, 2023

16 BCOS members and guests decided to get a float in before the forecasted severe weather was supposed to arrive mid afternoon. Wrong!! We were a little over halfway thru when the bottom fell out. Thunder and pouring rain hit when we were about halfway thru, thus no turning back. It kept up for over half an hour and had us praying that we'd all make it to shore safely. Not that we had any other choice but to pray. Luckily the weather cleared up and sunny skies greeting us at the take out. Another BCOS adventure in the books!
