

An Evening (and a Morning)
with

Legendary Birder Peter Kaestner!

Peter's 10,000th
Bird!

TALK

Tuesday, November 10, 7:00PM

Second Presbyterian Church
600 Pleasant Valley Dr, Little Rock

WALK

Wednesday, November 11, 7am

Two Rivers Park, at Roundabout Statue
4468 River Mountain Rd, Little Rock

Please join us for Peter's talk, which he describes as a poignant and humorous view of his life and his relentless quest to see 10,000 birds – he is the first person in the world to officially see and document 10,000 unique bird species in the wild! All are welcome to his bird walk the next morning at Two Rivers Park. Peter is a retired U.S. diplomat who lives in Baltimore, and an active independent birder who has spent a lifetime sharing his passion.
